

SAW STRANGE THINGS ON TOUR OF AVENUE

Sight-Seeing Trio View Capital Wonders With Varying Emotions.

They were undoubtedly sightseers. She had a searching stare, a huge veil, and a brand new camera, which she carried at the end of a long strap. He—that is the he—there was another man in the party—wore a light suit of a rather ultra urban cut and seemed not so perfectly delighted with all around. The other man above referred to needs no description; he was simply there to hold packages. They were walking up Pennsylvania avenue and their comments upon the sights to be seen were most entertaining. "Isn't it an entrancing view down the avenue?" said the lady in a rapt tone.

"Delightful," said her companion. The other man said nothing. He simply looked disgustedly around him.

They came to the big sight-seeing automobile, and this, their observer thought, would be the stopping point, but not so. "What a big express car," they said, glancing at it, and as the bystanders gazed they went on. Up the Avenue somewhere there is the Salvation Army headquarters, and with the big sign painted upon the front of it they were much astounded.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS WHEN TOLD OF SHORTAGE

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 23.—Eugene C. Patterson, aged forty-seven, of New York, a bookkeeper for the Superior Supply Company, of Bluefield, committed suicide last evening by firing a bullet through his brain. An expert accountant had just examined his books and announced a shortage. He turned and picked up a revolver and blew out his brains.

TRIO FOUND IT HARD TO FLOAT FAT FRIEND

Four Men Precipitated Into the Water by a Two-Hundred-Pounder's Mishap.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., June 23.—By the overturning of a rowboat in the Perkiomen creek four fishermen—John Gehring, Frank Friend, William Geller, and George Matchner, of this town—had to battle for their lives.

The accident was caused by Gehring having an attack of vertigo. While seated in the bow of the boat Gehring, who weighs over 200 pounds, became ill and fell over the side. His head was under water, while his feet and legs remained in the boat. Matchner tried to lift the prostrate man into the boat, but was unsuccessful. Geller and Friend then went to his assistance, and, while trying to rescue Gehring, the boat was partially overturned and finally sank.

Matchner, Geller, and Friend were all

BOYS STEAL CANDY TO HEARTS' CONTENT

Children of Nine and Eleven Walk Boldly Into Sweetmeat Factory and Help Themselves.

BROOKLYN, June 23.—John Thomas, a watchman, employed in the candy factory of L. Schillman & Co., at 82 Leonard street, while sitting in the office, was surprised to see two youngsters enter, and immediately begin to help themselves to candy. After they had eaten all they wanted, the boys took several boxes and filled them, preparatory to taking them away. Then Thomas interfered, and took the pair to the Stagg street station. They gave their names as Benjamin Rosenblum, nine years old, of 88 Leonard street, and Morris Resnais, eleven years old, of 9 Meserole street. They were taken to the children's court.

CLAIMS PROCESSED IRON IS HARDER THAN STEEL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 23.—Edward Dinmore Woods, thirty-eight, who says he has a chemical formula for changing cast iron into "processed iron," a substance harder than steel, was arrested here today as a fugitive from New York city, on information from District Attorney Jerome, who said there was a charge against him. Woods asserts that the charges came from the Empire Tool and Specialty Company, of which he was president, and which he says is attempting to gain possession of his secret. He has been living in good style here. He had interested a local company in his secret. He says he will return to New York and face his accusers.

BELLAMY STORER'S GOODS PASSED AT CUSTOMS HOUSE

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 23.—Notice of the entry of household goods of Hon. Bellamy Storer, former ambassador to Austria from the United States, was received at the customs office. The goods are ordered to be passed without an inspection. The shipment consists of sixteen cases and two trunks.

RAILROAD PLEADS AGE IN A COURT OF LAW

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 23.—Opposition by the officials of Braddock against the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, operating as the Pittsburgh and Connelville railroad and connecting with the main line at Cumberland, to prevent the laying of tracks in the borough has reached the county courts.

MINERS WERE IN PERIL FROM BURNING SHAFT

SCHANTON, Pa., June 23.—One hundred and fifty miners were caught in the bottom life of the Sibbey shaft in Old Forge, near this city, when the breaker caught fire and burned to the foundations.

No Coffee War. Recent published reports of the reduction in price of a certain packaged coffee have no relation to Arbuckle's "Ariosa" Coffee, the standard of coffee values for the past thirty-seven years. In trade parlance the "grade" of "Ariosa" is too high for a price reduction in this market. Its equal in quality could not be retailed competitively except at a pecuniary loss. Only the enormous sales of "Ariosa," exceeding the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees in the United States, and the fact that it is marketed on the narrow margin of profit, make possible its superlative value for its present price. Loose, mixed coffees sold out of bags and bins cannot be identified, and are no criterion of retail values, offering opportunities for deception and the temptation of excessive profits.

200 sun-flare plaited skirts at

$2.98

Actual value $6.00

Just 200 women can share in this offering, no more, no less—the material is a fine quality mohair in black, navy blue, and gray, and shepherd checks. The style is the popular Sun-Flare plaited model, so popular this season—beautifully plaited, cut extra full and thoroughly well made—light and airy as a linen skirt, and does not soil as quickly. Just the thing for separate Shirt Waists.

Actually worth $6.00.

Special at $2.98.

Dressing sacques and long and short kimonos

ALL $1 TO $2 KINDS

Timely, you'll admit—and at prices quoted they represent the greatest values ever offered in Washington or vicinity. Bought for "seconds"—but there are more perfect ones than imperfect. The defects when they do appear are mostly oil spots or such that will disappear with one washing.

25 styles in the Dressing Sacques and Short Kimonos. Just as many different kinds in the Long Kimonos. They are made by one of the most careful and painstaking makers known to the trade and to every woman who is in the habit of buying such garments.

There is good choice for every one—for those who like all white—for those who prefer colors—and for those in mourning or semi-mourning. All sizes—34 to 44.

The bargain tables will be piled high tomorrow morning, but come early, and you'll secure the prizes—the $2.00 kind—and pay but 50c for the Dressing Sacques and Short Kimonos and only 69c for the Long Kimonos.

A splendid feature of Monday's great wash goods sale

These are nice, clean, fresh goods—just from the factory. They are all staple patterns and in the best color effects. There are some white grounds and some colored grounds, with figures, dots, scrolls, and floral designs in white and colors. Couldn't find anything better for inexpensive good-looking summer dresses or waists. This is the lowest-price at which these goods have ever been offered. We bought an immense quantity. Haven't before been able to buy any to sell under 12c a yard. SALE PRICE for this lot is practically half—6 1/2c a yard. Attention is called to the SWISSES—they are the favored corded effects.
